

Meet Ronnie our August cover star.

I'm an incredibly friendly boy, always eager to greet folks with a happy tail wag. I've shared a home with children in the past and we got on wonderfully, though cats aren't for me. I'm fine around other dogs, too.

I could potentially fit well in a household with a female dog! During outings, I'm a perfect companion.

I'm excited to share my affection and devotion with a new pack—might that include you?

Issue 33

Welcome from the editor

It's been a summer of great weather to get our dogs out and about. They have been on trips to rivers, parks, garden centres, local shops, our volunteer's homes and had such a lot of opportunity to run off lead in large secure fields. Residing in the beautiful cheshire countryside there are many trails and footpaths to explore and our caring volunteers are making the most of all that they can find.

We have a new look newsletter, new look logo, new look website, read all about it on page 4.

This has been the hardest DRUE Life newsletter I've yet written, compiling articles about so many dobies having just lost my own beautiful girl Inca. 13yrs and 3 months old (photo of her on her 13th birthday). ➡

She wasn't a DRUE dog—so has gate-crashed the party getting a mention in this newsletter. But her and her younger brother, led me on my journey to become part of DRUE's main team. You'll be forever in my heart dearest Inca.

New look—Bigger heart

New look – Bigger heart

We have grown, evolved, and made it easier for people to find, recognise, and support us, without ever losing the heart of who we are.

In the early days

When we began, our logo was a bold symbol of love and protection. A heart formed from a claw, flanked by two proud Dobermanns, representing fierce care, strength, and loyalty.

As we grew, so did our focus. The claw softened into a paw, and the heart became more open and bright, showing warmth, trust, and welcome.

But something else started to change. As the name “Dobermann Rescue” was getting more and more common, it became harder for people to know which rescue they were seeing. Even our name appeared in different forms across platforms: DRUE, D.R.U.E, D.R.U.E, and sometimes the full charity registered name. People weren’t always sure if they were looking at us, and we were getting confused with other rescues.

Stronger mission, clearer identity

The confusion with other rescues made things harder for the dogs who rely on us. So we have made things simpler.

One name. One look. One clear identity. Easier to recognise, easier to trust, easier to help.

Same compassion, greater impact

Every part of our new look reflects how far we’ve come and where we are going: This logo tells a bigger story.

The claw had become a paw, showing care instead of defence

The heart now became open, soft, and spacious, making room for more dogs in need.

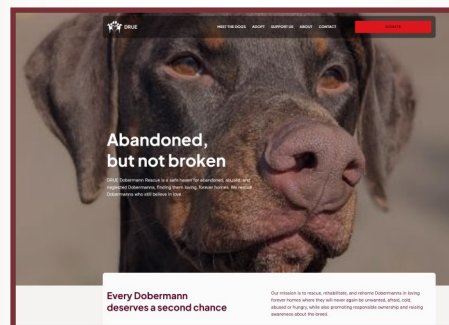

The name DRUE is now fully part of the symbol, clear, bold, and unmistakably us.

It is not just about looking different. It is about standing tall as one strong, united family, ready to welcome, protect, and love every Dobermann that needs us.

Enhanced web design

We’ve also given our website a fresh, modern makeover to better serve you and the Dobermanns we care for.

Our new web design features a cleaner layout with intuitive navigation, making it simpler to find the information you need, whether that's details on adoptable dogs, upcoming events, or ways to support our mission. This update ensures that your visit is more engaging and informative, reflecting the same clarity and openness as our new branding. It's easier than ever to connect with us, learn about our work, and take action to help.

Building a brighter future together

In summary, our new identity as DRUE embodies the growth we've achieved while staying true to our core values of compassion, strength, and unwavering dedication to Dobermanns in need.

This refreshed look isn't just visual, it's a promise of greater efficiency in our operations, stronger connections with supporters like you, and ultimately, more lives saved.

We're proud of where we've been and even more excited about the impact we'll make moving forward.

Now, it's your turn to get involved! Whether you're ready to adopt a Dobermann in need, volunteer your time at one of our events, donate to fund essential medical care, or simply share this newsletter with fellow dog enthusiasts, every action counts.

Visit our website www.dobermannrescueuk.co.uk today to explore more information on DRUE, make a one-time or recurring donation, or sign up to be one of our volunteers.

Together, we can ensure no Dobermann is left behind, join us in this mission and let's make an even bigger difference! Thank you for your continued support; we couldn't do this without you.

With gratitude and wagging tails,
The DRUE Team.

Life after rescue: CeCe

Meet beautiful Cece

Andrea adopted DRUE dog Cece late last year. It is lovely to check in with her to find out how Cece is settling in. You will see she is now living her best life. Over to Andrea...

Coming home

Cece chose and adopted us in December 2024, and after four visits, three of which included our sweet dog Mila, I brought her home and she officially became part of our family!

From the moment I brought her home, it was clear she was meant to be with us.

Cece adores Mila, her new doggy sibling, and their bond is pure magic. They love travelling together and exploring new places side by side.

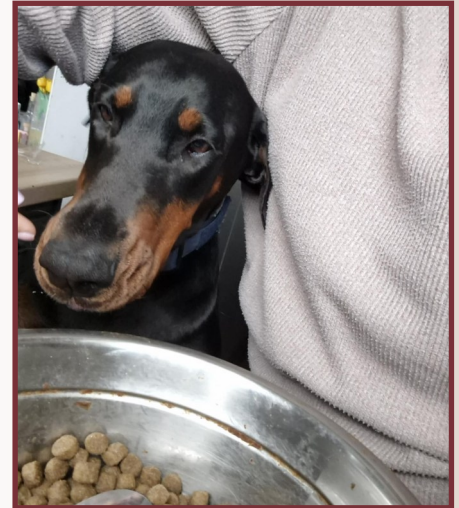

At home, cuddling is non-negotiable! Whether it's squeezing onto the same pet bed or sprawling across a step to share a sun-soaked blanket (even if it means half of Cece is dangling off the edge), their snuggles are a true display of their love for each other.

A true food Diva

Cece's passion for food knows no bounds! She'll happily devour almost anything you put in front of her—well, except for carrots, where no love is lost and which she politely declines.

When I'm preparing her meals, she's right there in the kitchen, eagerly jumping up to sneak a kibble nugget from under my arm before the bowl even hits the floor. so she feels like she gets more? Or because she's a princess! Who knows?

She's the biggest cuddler and lickiest dog we've ever met! She can also be a complete menace when she thinks you're not looking and will attempt to sneak food from the side!

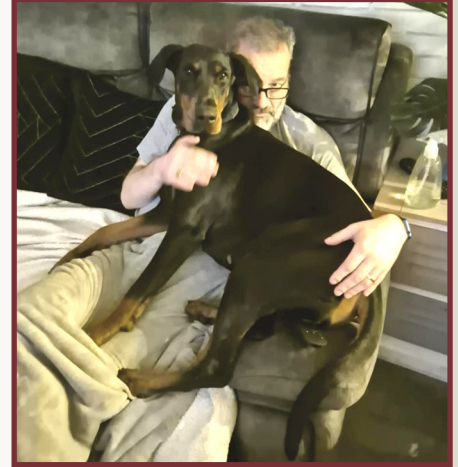

Life after rescue:

CeCe (continued)

I've considered who she would be if she was a celebrity then realised that actually she is a celebrity in Sandbach! Most people will stop and talk to her or comment on how beautiful she is, then at the park pretty much every dogs wants to play with her and owners love her!

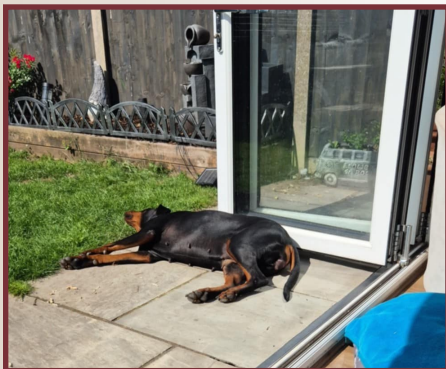

She makes us laugh when she chases her tail and when she insists on lying over you. She's like a lapdog on a huge scale or when she just wants to be next to you and sleep.

She can open all the doors (except the front door thank God!) and frequently let's herself out into the back garden for a wander round or a quick shout at the birds for being in her garden! Cece has 2 favourite places - the conservatory and a field on the other side of town.

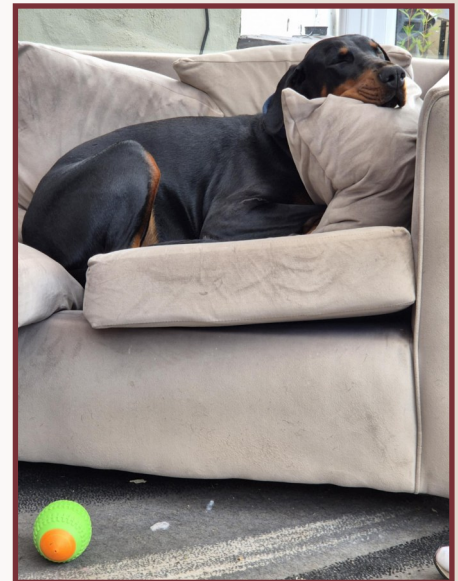

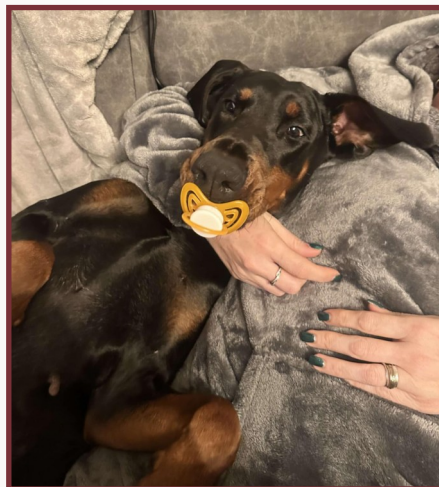

She has an inherent dislike of water, walking around puddles so she doesn't get her feet wet. She will go from 60mph to minus 5mph if she hasn't realised it's raining when she heads out of the door.

She's the cutest, cuddliest & funniest loon I've had the pleasure to be owned by! She loves a dummy (yes you read that right!).

She loves to play with all the other dogs that go there and is a firm favourite with other owners due to her energy to help exercise their dogs and her lovable nature, there's not a mean bone in her body!

She's just adorable and loves nothing more than snuggling up in the evening usually on a lap or shoulder then proceeds to snore down one of our ears.

She also has a habit of having a cheeky little root through the flowers until she gets to the pear tree and steals one!

This pup was built for this house she's as crazy as everyone and everything in it. Welcome home Cece. Now stop stealing teddy's!!

SWDC Fun dog Show 17th August

The wonderful team in the South West is once again hosting their annual dog show in Western-Super-Mare to raise funds for our cause, and we couldn't be more grateful for their support.

Having had the pleasure of attending this fantastic event a couple of years ago, I can personally vouch for what a brilliant day out it is.

From adorable dogs strutting their stuff to fun-filled activities for all ages, the show is the perfect place to take your family for some real community entertainment, and furry charm.

Expect a delightful mix of competitions, stalls, and plenty of wagging tails, all set in a welcoming atmosphere that makes for an unforgettable day.

Join them in supporting this great event, bring your family, friends, and of course your four-legged pals to show your support for a great cause.

Thank you SWDC for supporting DRUE once again.

DRUE celebrates International dog day

International Dog Day, 26Aug

Created in 2004 by pet and family lifestyle advocate Colleen Paige, International Dog Day celebrates all breeds, mixed and pure, and acknowledges the countless ways dogs enrich our lives.

It was established to raise awareness about dogs in need and promote rescue adoptions. It celebrates the unwavering loyalty and love dogs provide while encouraging responsible pet care. The day also sheds light on issues like puppy farms, dog fighting, and animal cruelty, advocating for improved treatment and welfare for dogs everywhere.

On this National Dog Day, DRUE is shining a light on the intelligent and loving Dobermanns in our care, urging dog lovers across the country to consider adoption, fostering, or supporting our mission to give these incredible dogs a second chance at a loving home.

Founded with a passion for the breed, DRUE has spent years rescuing and rehoming Dobermanns who have faced abandonment, neglect, or challenging circumstances.

This National Dog Day, it is the perfect moment to celebrate the unique qualities of Dobermanns, known for their sleek coats, athletic builds, and unwavering devotion (and their Velcro tendencies) and to highlight the urgent need for forever homes.

A day to honour dogs and make a difference

National Dog Day is about celebrating the joy dogs bring to our lives, it's also a reminder of the many dogs still waiting for their happy ending. With the right family, they are loving, protective, and endlessly loyal companions. We're calling on the public to open their hearts and homes to one of our rescues.

How you can get involved

DRUE is encouraging supporters to mark National Dog Day with action:

Adopt: Visit our website to meet our adoptable Dobermanns and learn about the adoption process.

Foster: Provide a temporary home for a Doberman in need, helping them transition to their forever family.

Donate: Every pound helps cover veterinary care, food, and kennel costs for our rescues.

Volunteer: Join our team to assist with events, dog walking, or fundraising.

Spread the Word: Share our mission on your social media.

A bright future for our dogs

As National Dog Day brings dog lovers together, DRUE remains committed to ensuring every Doberman in our care finds the love and security they deserve. These dogs have so much to give, and with your support, we can continue transforming their lives.

Spotlight on our volunteers

Vicky & Paul

Intro to our dynamic duo

Vicky and Paul have been regular volunteers since October 2024. Between them, they have shared their lives not only with dogs but with a wide variety of animals, including cats, guinea pigs, hamsters, rabbits, mice, budgies, canaries, doves, chickens, fish and even more exotic companions such as tortoises, tarantulas, and a particularly charismatic chameleon named Fred.

Many of these animals came into their care through rescue or rehoming situations, each one leaving a lasting impression on their hearts, but nothing quite captures the heart like a Doberman.

Our life with Dobermanns

I often shared fond memories with Paul of my beloved rescue Doberman, Higgins. That was Paul's first real insight into the Doberman breed and their unique, endearing character.

I grew up in South Africa, where Higgins was discovered by a rescue shelter in a heartbreaking state - emaciated, tied up outside an abandoned property with no access to shelter, food, or water.

Higgins was estimated to be around two years old when he joined our family and had clearly spent his entire life outside, likely used solely as a guard dog. This difficult start brought many challenges. He was under-socialised, reactive to other dogs, and deeply mistrustful of strangers. Given his past, he had every reason to be wary of the world, and it was up to us to meet him with patience, empathy, and understanding. With time, love, and consistent care, Higgins gradually blossomed into the most wonderful, loyal companion.

He was a true Doberman: highly intelligent, fiercely loyal and protective, yet bursting with character and fun. Higgins left an indelible mark on my heart and is the very reason Paul and I eventually chose to welcome our own Doberman, Rocco, into our lives.

Rocco joined us as an 8-week-old, lovable, cheeky puppy and quickly became our whole world.

He was involved in every aspect of our lives. Our constant companion, from extended family gatherings to fun-filled annual holidays. As a result, Rocco grew into a confident dog who took everything in his stride, and he absolutely loved life.

With a heart of pure devotion and as big as his personality, his love and affection knew no bounds. He was well known in our local community and had a way of captivating everyone he met, especially children, and thrived on their energy and enthusiasm.

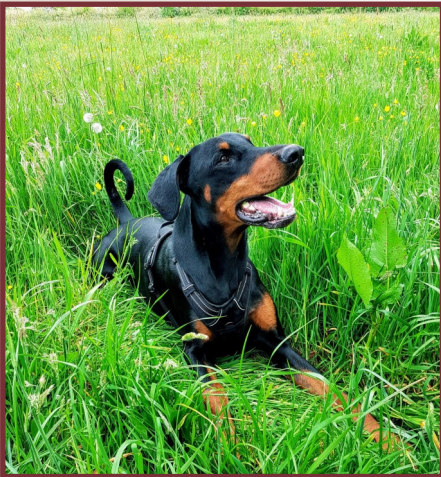

Rocco had a remarkable ability to adapt his behaviour to suit the dogs around him - calm and playful with puppies, and offering a gentle, reassuring presence to more nervous or anxious dogs.

Through him, we deepened our understanding of canine

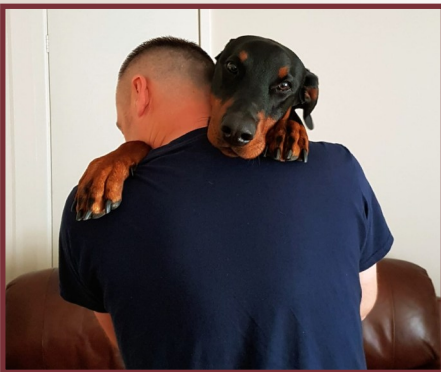

Spotlight on our volunteers

communication, learning how dogs interact, set boundaries, and support one another in ways that are often far more intuitive and sensitive than we realise.

Tragically, Rocco was diagnosed with Lymphoma in August 2024. We chose to pursue chemotherapy, but sadly he stopped responding to treatment. He passed away peacefully in our arms in October, just shy of his ninth birthday.

We loved him dearly and miss him terribly but in honour of our gorgeous boy, and having supported and followed DRUE for many years, we made a promise to Rocco: that we would do everything we could to help his breed and the dogs in need. And so, we became volunteers at DRUE, continuing his legacy with love.

Our DRUE journey

Since becoming volunteers, we have witnessed with heavy hearts many dogs come into DRUE's care. From owners who have tragically passed away and reluctant surrenders, to unwanted or abandoned dogs, with little to no known history. Some arrive having experienced abuse, neglect, or inadequate care.

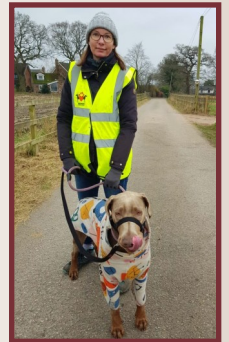

With every dog, we have learned that a slow and gentle approach is always best. Patience and compassion are essential and tasty treats go a long way. It's admirable how incredibly resilient and forgiving these dogs can be. With time, love, and consistency, they begin to adapt, trust, and open their hearts.

Spending meaningful time with them - whether walking, training, playing, grooming, or simply sharing a quiet cuddle on the office sofa forms a bond that is deeply rewarding for both the dogs and their carers.

Volunteering comes with its challenges. From behavioural issues to lead pulling, there can be hurdles to overcome.

For us, it is the emotional challenges that can be the hardest to bear. Over time, you learn to build a certain level of resilience and develop ways to manage the emotional strain, but it never becomes truly easy. Even the little things, like returning a dog to their kennel after a long, wonderful day spent in their company can be heartbreaking.

Losing Xena recently was especially difficult for all of us at DRUE. She captured both Paul's heart and mine instantly. Such a sweet girl with the most beautiful, gentle soul. Her loss hit us hard, and many tears were shed. Yet we feel truly honoured to have shared such a profound connection with her. Xena left a lasting impression, and she will forever live on in all our hearts and memories.

Spotlight on our volunteers Vicky & Paul

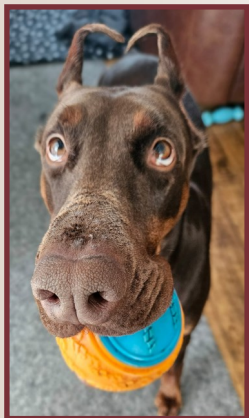

Our DRUE Foster, Lulu

Thankfully, the rewards far outweigh the emotional toll. A particularly rewarding time for us was fostering Lulu, who had been in kennels elsewhere for two years, before coming to DRUE.

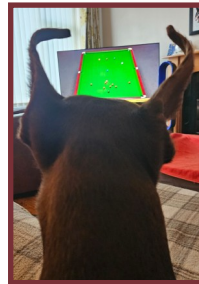

She was struggling with her mobility (which later materialised to be Osteochondritis Dissecans, a progressive condition that she will have for the rest of her life) and was in poor physical condition with skin issues and bearing deep scars.

She was nervous, anxious and confused, so over the course of three weeks, we allowed her time to decompress and focused on ensuring she felt safe and secure, slowly gaining her trust.

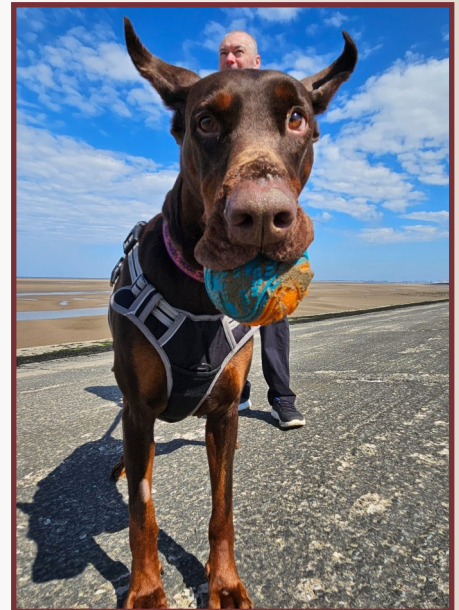

Everything about a home environment was completely new and overwhelming for her. She was introduced gradually to everyday things most of us take for granted like the washing machine, the vacuum cleaner, and even the TV - all of which initially frightened her. With patience and encouragement, she began to relax.

Eventually, she started to ignore those once scary noises and distractions and to our surprise, she even developed a fascination with her nemesis, the TV. She was absolutely mesmerised by the snooker, happily watching the balls move across the screen with intense concentration.

It was clear that Lulu had not experienced much of the outside world, either. Thankfully, she absolutely adored car journeys, so we used that to our advantage. Taking her on some wonderful road trips where she could discover new sights, sounds, and smells.

She visited an expansive beach on the Wirral Peninsula and felt the sand beneath her paws for the very first time, was treated like "Princess Lulu" during a visit to Hawarden Castle in Wales, sniffed the bluebells and quietly watched deer roam at Dunham Massey.

She enjoyed a leisurely stroll along the parade at Parkgate, taking in the vast array of birdlife on the estuary while happily lapping up one of their famous ice creams. She even explored the historic city of Chester, following ducks and swans along the River Dee with curious delight.

Spotlight on our volunteers

Vicky & Paul

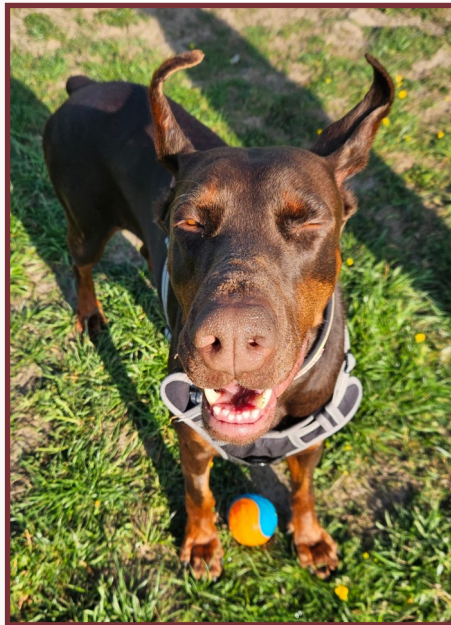

As her confidence grew, so did her experiences. We visited garden centres, pet stores, enjoyed breakfast alfresco at quaint cafés and after a day exploring, we would all relax with a cool drink, soaking up the last of the sunshine at a welcoming, dog friendly pub.

To witness her true personality slowly emerge and to watch her adapt, recover and thrive despite the traumas she had endured, was inspiring and truly humbling. To have played even a small part in her journey was an incredible privilege and we are both immensely proud of Lulu and all that she achieved in a relatively short period of time.

When the moment came to wave her off to her forever home in Cornwall, it was bittersweet, but we are so grateful to be in contact with her wonderful mum. Watching Lulu blossom continues to bring us immense joy. It is always heartwarming to receive updates on the dogs DRUE have rehomed and how they continue to flourish in their new lives, beyond our care.

We will forever treasure our memories with this special girl, who came to realise that kindness does exist, and that the world is not something to fear, but something to be explored and enjoyed.

Moments like these are what make every challenge, every tear, completely and utterly worth it.

Being a DRUE team member
Volunteering for DRUE has brought us a great deal of comfort since losing Rocco. Although we began this journey in his honour and with the intention of helping the dogs in DRUE's care, it's they who have truly helped us, guiding us through our grief and helping us begin to heal.

We are eternally grateful to every one of them for their love, friendship, and the sense of purpose they have given us.

We are deeply proud to be part of this incredible charity. A community of kind-hearted, selfless people bound together by our mission. Whether working tirelessly behind the scenes or out on the front lines in all kinds of weather, every single person gives their heart and soul.

Together, we stand as one team, driven by a single purpose: to do what is best for the dogs who rely on us. Their welfare is at the centre of everything we do, and always will be.

Are you ready to make a difference?

Do you have a passion for giving back and making an impact? If you've been fortunate in life and are looking for a way to contribute, this opportunity is calling your name:

Volunteer with us

At DRUE, we are expanding our team of dedicated volunteers. Here's how you can help:

- Dog walking: We need confident helpers (over 21yrs old) with experience in handling large breeds. Your time and effort will ensure our Dobermanns get the exercise and companionship they deserve.

- Kennel assistance: If walking isn't for you, or if you're looking for variety in your volunteer work, assisting in the kennels or spending time with the dogs in our secure paddock can be equally rewarding. Help our staff with daily tasks to keep our operations smooth.

- Weekday availability: We especially value volunteers who can offer their time during the week when help is often most needed.

Can't make it to the kennels?

Distance shouldn't stop you from contributing! We have various opportunities that don't require you to be on-site:

- Event volunteering: Host our merchandise and fundraising stalls at various events.
- Enhancing our marketing and PR efforts. Do you have experience of community outreach, press releases, establishing partnerships with sponsors, suppliers and supporters. If so we could use your skills.

- Creative contributions: If you have skills in design, writing, or marketing, we need your talent for developing promotional materials. Crafting engaging articles and content.
- Join our fundraising team: Become a key player in our efforts to raise the necessary funds to support our rescues. Ask us for more details!

As we strive to grow our charity and save more Dobermanns, your skills could be pivotal to our success in several ongoing projects.

Pup Pop Quiz No.6

Welcome to our fun dog themed Pop Pup Quiz, brought to you by Lyndsay, one of DRUE's wonderful volunteers.

Test your knowledge and see if you're the top dog when it comes to a pop quiz with some loosely, and some strongly, connected Dobermann trivia! Some are tricky so get the family involved.

We hope you enjoy it and perhaps you can even relate to some of these with your own Dobermanns?

1. "Complete the missing lyrics that names the title of an Elvis Presley song "Take my hand, Take my whole life too, For I with you"
2. "Home" was a 2005 song by which Canadian easy listening jazz, swing and soul singer?
3. Name the title of Fleetwood Mac 1980 song containing these lyrics "Hey you, The one with the laughing eyes, You the one with the haunting stare, well you, you have the power to hypnotize....."
4. "Open Your Heart" was a song off which female artists 1986 True Blue Album?
5. Name the title of the 2019 song by James Bay containing these lyrics "I found you all alone, I came to warm your bones, There were twenty million tears in your hands, you found me in the dark, You came to heal my scars....."
6. What year did House of Pain tell everyone to "Jump around, Jump around, Jump around, Jump up, Jump up, and get down"
7. Name the title by finishing the lyrics of this well-known song by Dionne Warwick "If you see me walking down the street, and I start to cry each time we meet....."
8. Smokestack Lightning was a song by which male Blues Singer?
9. What year did Elton John release the song "I'm Still Standing"
10. Have a little "Patience" were some wise words that our Dobermanns sometimes can't quite manage, but which English Boy Band sang them in their 2006 UK number one hit song?
11. Richard Marx was "Right Here" what? is his song from 1989
12. What was the question that New Edition asked in 1988 that we may also find ourselves asking our Dobermanns "Can You Stand The?"
13. What is the title of the song by U2 that contains the opening lyrics "I have climbed highest mountains, I have run through the fields, Only to be with you, Only to be with you...."
14. Which Swedish band sang "Lay All Your Love On Me" in 1980
15. "Bones" was a song by The Killers, but in what year was it released?

Settling your adopted Dobie

THE 3 DAYS, 3 WEEKS, 3 MONTHS RULE OF ADOPTING A RESCUE DOG

THIS IS A GENERAL GUIDELINE, EVERY DOG IS UNIQUE AND WILL ADJUST TO THEIR NEW ENVIRONMENT DIFFERENTLY

IN THE FIRST 3 DAYS

Overwhelmed with their new surroundings. Not comfortable enough to be themselves. Reluctance to eat or drink. May shut down and curl up in their bed, crate or in a corner. May be stressed, scared and not know what is happening. May try to test you to see what they can get away with.

AFTER 3 WEEKS

Starting to settle in, feeling more comfortable, and realising this really may be their forever home. They're figuring out their environment and getting into the routine that you have set. Now they may start showing their real personality. Behavioural issues may start showing, this is your time to ensure boundaries are in place and you show them what is right and wrong.

AFTER 3 MONTHS

Now completely comfortable in their home. You have built trust and a bond with your dog, which gives them a complete sense of security with you. They are set in their routine and will come to expect the routine to continue

Support and follow us

Reasons to support us

1. We are 100% invested in the dogs wellbeing.
2. We ensure the dogs are stimulated everyday with time out of their kennels to walk, run, and play.
3. We have a highly motivated team including professionals and experienced Dobermann owners/handlers
4. We aim to save and rehome as many Dobermann dogs in need as we can, but we need your help!
